

QUEBEC COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS ASSOCIATION 2009 LINDSAY CRYSLER AWARD

Editors, publishers and other members of QCNA are encouraged to nominate individuals for the Lindsay Crysler Award. This award was created in Lindsay Crysler's honor in 1994, when he was professor of Journalism at Concordia University. Long time teacher, Lindsay Crysler retired as head of Concordia's Journalism Department in 1998.

This award is designed to celebrate those who have made an outstanding contribution to community newspapers and their success in the past year or over the long term.

The winner will be selected by a panel of past winners.

If you wish to nominate someone, please fill out the nomination form attached.

Deadline for entries: QCNA office, Monday, January 18, 2010.

Some examples of a person deserving the Lindsay Crysler Award would be:

1. Someone who has made a strong contribution in the past year or over the long term, to their own newspaper, to QCNA, to CCNA, etc.
2. Someone who has worked long and hard to make a newspaper succeed in difficult circumstances.
3. Someone who has made one single gesture that gives the community, or the world at large, a good impression of the community leadership of the newspaper.
